They are the same basics of the Christian life that Christ's disciples have been pursuing for centuries. Knowing the King is what an old saint named Benedict called spiritual formation; it chiefly involves prayer and also constant dependence on God amid the trials of life. Knowing the Faith comes from studying the Bible and hearing it taught (Benedict's theological formation). The topics Called to Be Sent and The Body of Christ involve reaching outward to the unbelieving world and to Christian brothers and sisters. (Some Christians call these two areas evangelism and fellowship.) No matter whi
