Between Amazon, teacher message boards and never-ending resource rooms, it can be hard to decide on just one or two textbooks. And, hey, we teachers have to make our money go the distance. Not to worry! Each one of these books was written by a professional (or multiple professionals) that's been in the English teaching business for a very long time! They know their stuff and have lots to offer. They know the needs of both new teachers, who are just getting started, and well-seasoned teachers, who are looking for a way to spice up their existing curriculum.
