Edmund burke. In twelve volumes. Volume the second. [Illustration: Burke Coat of Arms.] London john C. nimmo 14, king william street, strand, w.C. MDCCCLXXXVII. Speech on american taxation.Â The speech contains a full refutation of the charges against that party with which Mr. Burke has all along acted. In doing this, he has taken a review of the effects of all the schemes which have been successively adopted in the government of the plantations. The subject is interesting; the matters of information various and important; and the publication at this time, the editor hopes, will not be thought unseasonable. e believe there is no need of an apology to the public for offering to them any genuine speeches of Mr. Burke: the two contained in this publication undoubtedly are so. The general approbation they met with (as we hear) from all parties at Bristol persuades us that a good edition of them will not be unacceptable in London; which we own to be the inducement, and we hope is a justification, of our offering it. Edmund burke. In twelve volumes. Volume the second. [Illustration: Burke Coat of Arms.] London john C. nimmo 14, king william street, strand, w.C. MDCCCLXXXVII. Contents of vol.Â Most readers will recollect the uncommon pains taken at the beginning of the last session of the last Parliament, and indeed during the whole course of it, to asperse the characters and decry the measures of those who were supposed to be friends to America, in order to weaken the effect of their opposition to the acts of rigor then preparing against the. colonies. The speech contains a full refutation of the charges against that party with which Mr. Burke has all along acted.
