Poetry written during the reign of Queen Victoria from 1837 to 1901 is defined as Victorian poetry. The defining characteristics of Victorian age poetry are its focus on sensory elements, its recurring themes of the religion/science conflict, and its interest in medieval fables and legends. Also see features of Georgian poetry. During the Victorian era, however, there was a lot of radical social change and as such, many poets of this time didn't like the romanticized version of society. The Victorian poetry is, thus, divided into two main groups of poetry: The High Victorian Poetry and The Pre Victorian Women Poets Springer 9780333608043 : This casebook includes critical explorations of poetry by Victorian women. Based on theoretical methods drawn from forms of feminist and history. She argues that women poets conceived of lyric as an intersubjective genre, one that seeks to establish relations between subjects rather than to constitute a subject in isolation. Moving away from canonical texts that contribute to the commonly held notion that lyric poetry is an utterance made in solitude, Harrington explores the work of Christina Rossetti, Augusta Webster, A. Mary F. Robinson, Alice. Victorian Women Poets book. Read reviews from world's largest community for readers. This book recovers and explores an important tradition of nineteenth...
