That boy craved dark Satan's power. So he killed his family in one nasty hour. Little Michelle he strangled in the night. Then chopped up Debby: a bloody sight. Mother Patty he saved for last. Blew off her head with a shotgun blast. I signed my book for mouth-breathing kids who asked me jarring questions, like did my mom cook pies. I signed the book for gray, needful old men peering at me from behind bifocals, their breath blasting burnt coffee and stomach acid. "Start a New Day!" I'd write or "A New Day Awaits!"
