Great Crimes and Trials of the Twentieth Century

Author: Paul Begg & Martin Fido

Publisher: Carlton books

Edition:

Book Size: 285 x 220mm

Pages:

Volumes:

Condition: Very Good

Jacket Condition: Good

Binding: Hardcover

Description: Arranged Chronologically, great crimes and trials of the twentieth century provides a chilling record of how crime and punishment has changed over the century. Victims are burnt, suffocated, stabbed, shot, tortured, and mutilated. The crimes range from bootlegging, robbery and kidnapping to the most btual of murders. The criminals are men and women who commit their crimes because they are insane, sexually dysfunctional, pollitically motivated or have just reached the end of their tether. Some felons like the great train robbers, have become modern day heroes, while others like Charles Manson and the moors murderers, will always be regarded with deep repugnance. Background detail on the detectives involved in the crime, the clues, and the eventual capture of the law breaker makes thrilling and absorbing reading. Accounts of the trials not only give an intriguing insight into the minds of the killers but also a deeper understanding of how the wheels of justice turn. Illustrated throughout with over 200 widely researched photographs and tv screenshots, many of which are previously unpublished.

Criminal History of Mankind

Author: Colin Wilson

Publisher: Collins Publishing

Edition:

Book Size: 195mm x 130mm

Pages: 702

Volumes:

Condition: Very Good

Jacket Condition:

Binding: Soft Cover

Description: A Criminal History of Mankind is a completely new approach to the history and psychology of human crime and violence. Colin Wilson describes the bloodthirsty sadism of the ancient assyrians, the murderous opportunism of the Greek pirates, the vicous brutality that made Rome the razor king of the Mediterranean, the mindless destruction of the vandals, the mass slaughter of Genghis Khan, Ivan the terrible, Viad the impaler, Stalin and Hitler. He explains the changing pattern of crime through the ages up until our own day, when the sex killer and the mass murderer have become symbols of all that is worst in our civilization. Colin Wilsons A criminal History of mankind is a masterful survey which puts criminally and violence of all kinds in the wider context of history.

Jack the Ripper Letters from Hell

Author: Stewart P. Evans & Keith Skinner

Publisher: Sutton Publishing

Edition:

Book Size: 270mm x 200mm

Pages: 306

Volumes:

Condition: As New

Jacket Condition: Very Good

Binding: Hardcover

Description: Between August and November 1888 six women were found murdered and mutilated in Londons East End and Aldgate. All were prostitutes five were found in the street and the sixth in a house. The murders provoked massive interest in the press and dozens of letters quickly appeared, claiming to have been written by the killer. The origin of the name Jack the Ripper itself was a letter, famously written to Dear Boss, the head of the Central news Agency. Certain letters have been reproduced or quoted in previous books but Stewart Evans and Kieth Skinner are the first to have read and examined every one. This important book reproduces and transcribes all the letters, including the Dear Boss correspondence and the horrific letter sent to the Chairman of the Whitechapel Vigilance Committee together with a piece of human kidney.

Mindless Murders book. Read 2 reviews from the world's largest community for readers. We'd love your help. Let us know what's wrong with this preview of Mindless Murders by John Dunning. Problem: It's the wrong book It's the wrong edition Other. This was a case of a first-degree murder and one wonders why the life of a promising black man was brutally cut short by a cop who was supposed to protect him! While I condemn the looting of shops by the blacks in that community, I am in support of the peaceful protests that greeted his death. Why are many blacks targeted in needless killings by the white cops? Mindless murders. Item Preview. remove-circle. Share or Embed This Item. EMBED. texts. Mindless murders. by. Dunning, John.
