(And if you do have a yen for Dostoevsky, you can tackle that tome once youâ€™ve made a regular habit of chewing through pages.)Â While youâ€™ll find most large publishers on all the major e-reader platforms, Amazonâ€™s Kindle is by far the most popular storefront for self-published books and niche tastes. If thereâ€™s an author or genre youâ€™re particularly interested in, do some research and see which stores they sell throughâ€”Amazon, Rakutenâ€™s Kobo, or Barnes and Nobleâ€™s Nook â€”before you buy.Â Plus, the calming effect likely depends on the bookâ€”just ask anybody whoâ€™s read Stephen King late at night.
