Arthur Babysits Kate. It was a beautiful day in Elwood City, the Read household was busy with their activities and only one who is done is Arthur Read who is done with his homework, his tv playing Bionic Bunny. Then there was a knock on the door, it was his mom, "Arthur, me and your father are going to take DW to the mall, will you be fine?" Arthur spoke, "Okay, mom." as his mother, Jane and her husband, Dave and DW left the house, lock the front door and drive to the mall. Arthur's experience babysitting for the terrible Tibble twins is more challenging than he expected! The feisty little ones almost get the best of the adorable aardvark, but he is finally able to settle them down with an imaginative story. Publisher Description. Arthur's experience babysitting for the terrible Tibble twins is more challenging than he expected! The feisty little ones almost get the best of the adorable aardvark, but he is finally able to settle them down with an imaginative story. Arthur Babysits is the sixteenth book in the Arthur Adventure series. It was written and illustrated by Marc Brown and published by Little, Brown and Company on October 1, 1992. It became adapted into a cartoon segment as the first half of Episode 9 of Season 1 in 1996. This book is the first appearance of the Tibble Twins, Tommy and Timmy Tibble, who are the grandsons of Mrs. Tibble. The Tibbles were humans in the book, although the cartoon show changed their appearances to bears, since the series
